NON-ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Young Parent Policy Fellows Engagement Specialist Massachusetts Alliance on Teen Pregnancy October 2012- January 2015

As the Engagement Specialist I worked directly with teen parents and former teen parents ages 16-26. In this role, I assisted young parents in advocating for policy changes at both the state and local level. In addition, I supported youth to speak publicly at local conferences, become their own press representative, co-facilitate workshops, engage in formal writing/advocacy campaigns, participate in local research, and engage in social media platforms. Additional responsibilities included: Acting as a liaison between staff and fellows, designing and enforcing all YPPF policies/ program structure including, budget and future visioning work, implementing a large-scale public screenings of young parent’s digital stories and participating in various panels to educate local policymakers, educators, providers, and college students on the realities and stigmas of parenting young.

Case Manager Just A Start House (Teen Parent Residential Living Program) September 2009- November 2011

Directly responsible for the clinical, emotional, and physical safety of clients and their children. This role required building strong relationships of trust with young people, who often struggled to connect with adults and outsiders. In addition, this role supported youth in rebuilding lives, in ways that felt true to their identity and supported their unique goals. Additional responsibilities and experience included: Coordinating, organizing and monitoring clients participation in programming, exercising clinical skills, independent judgment, and discretion in sensitive client situations, conducting weekly meetings designed to support and facilitate relationships between clients and program staff and de-escalating and problem solving high-conflict relationships.

Case Manager Mi Casa (Foster care group home for boys, ages 12-17) Jan- July 2008

Directly responsible for the daily living program of six teenage boys who suffered from systemic and often, caretaker-induced trauma. Worked as part of team responsible for daily structured and recreational activities with youth. Additional responsibilities and experience included: improving and monitoring clients participation in programming, exercising clinical skills to de-escalate and problem solving high-conflict situations.
