Issues in Criminology:

Human Smuggling and Trafficking

Fall 2022

1. Course Information
   Instructor: Ko-lin Chin
   Class time: Thursday 2:00 - 4:40
   Office hours: Tuesday 2:00 – 4:00
   E-mail: kochin@scj.rutgers.edu

2. Course Overview/ course description
   This course is an examination of two transnational criminal enterprises, the smuggling and trafficking of persons, that draw on similar criminal groups, methods, and motives. It covers analytic approaches to studying the topics; the role of organized and other forms of crime to each; how agents operate in specific geographic contexts; and how state and non-state actors are responding to the smuggling and trafficking of persons.

3. Course Requirements and Processes
   Attendance and Participation
   Students are required to read assigned articles posted on Canvas, attend all virtual classes and participate in class discussion in a manner that reflects familiarity with the readings and previous class sessions. Students are required to be present from the beginning to the end of all class sessions, and to access the course website regularly to stay informed about any changes in lecture topics, assigned readings and other course announcements.

   Offensive or Sensitive Material In learning about crime and criminology, students may encounter language, depictions, or attitudes that they find disturbing or offensive. Please feel free to discuss with me any concerns you may have with course materials. At the same time, our topics for discussion may involve sensitive issues. If you would like to avoid participating in a particular class session, please see the professor before the class meeting.
Classroom Demeanor
All members of this class are required to conduct themselves in an appropriate and professional manner. In this class, we may have discussions that challenge our taken for granted assumptions about human smuggling and trafficking. Students should be prepared to engage honestly and openly about this material and perhaps even examine their own beliefs about the issues. While I am hopeful that the course materials will spark interesting discussion, personal insults or other types of demeaning, disrespectful, or threatening comments toward other class members about their experiences, backgrounds, or statements will NOT be tolerated.

For Individuals with Disabilities: The Office of Disability Services (ODS) is responsible for the determination of appropriate accommodations for students who encounter barriers due to disability. Once a student has completed the ODS process (registration, initial appointment, and submitted documentation) and reasonable accommodations are determined to be necessary and appropriate, a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) will be provided. The LOA must be given to each course instructor by the student and followed up with a discussion. This should be done as early in the semester as possible as accommodations are not retroactive.
